

able lake, a hill 150 feet in height, and many other sanitary advantages. The necessary orders to equip this as a camping ground will go forward immediately, and every advantage will be taken of the experience gained of the formation of the great camps at Chickamauga and Camp Alger to make the conditions as comfortable as possible for the battle-scarred veterans in Shafter's army. The time for their removal is left to Gen. Shafter, the only limitation placed upon him being that he shall not delay the homeward sailing of his troops beyond the moment when it shall be safe for them to leave Santiago, having regard to the fever conditions.

Meanwhile details are being made of troops to supply the force that shall garrison Santiago, so long as it shall be found necessary to continue troops there. This force will be made up almost altogether of immunes.

No word came from Gen. Miles today and the War Department assumes that he is pursuing his advance across the island of Porto Rico towards San Juan. Considerable reinforcements are now arriving to support Miles, and before the week is over the campaign there will be in full swing.

CAMP ECHOES.

Awaiting the Next Move—Impressions of the Cubans.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

BEFORE SANTIAGO DE CUBA, July 28.—[Correspondence of the Associated Press.] The American soldiers encamped on the hillsides that fall away from our entrenchments, have been waiting day after day for the result of the combined truces and conferences between Spain and the United States to be made known. They learned yesterday that Santiago had capitulated. This news was sent along the lines to the right and left from Gen. Wheeler's headquarters by Col. John Jacob Astor, and with it went instructions that our boys were to make no demonstrations of joy in order that the feelings of the Spaniards in the trenches a few hundred yards away would not be hurt by the echoing of victorious cheers. There was, however, some cheering among the crowded tents when our men learned that the object of their fighting, hunger and hardship had been attained.

During the afternoon men climbed to the trenches to look again at the city they had taken, but were allowed to enter, and some were glad for peace and others called for more fighting. The streets were quiet and waiting was removed, and soldierly effort resolved itself into getting as comfortably fixed in the camp as the conditions would permit. The night yesterday the regimental bands all along the line played national airs, as is the custom, and as a tired soldierly boy hummed the words "The Star-Spangled Banner" to the band's tune, he chanted the victory he had not had permission to shout.

The hardships of this campaign, let alone the fighting that scattered the graves of comrades side by side with the tents of the living, have been splendidly sustained by our men. Now that the heavy rains of the first of this week have been followed by a better, but rain clouds cover the sky every day, and any hour may see small rivers sweeping through the camp and it may be impossible to start fires to cook food.

Then food has been scarce; the roads from here to Manzanillo have been almost impassable during the rains, and at times they have been rough and teaming has been heavy. When men put up with three days of hard work and half a cup of coffee a day, the question of nutrition is serious, and when unseasoned soldiers go twenty hours without sleep it can be easily imagined how hard they are.

With the courage and determination of our men one notes the excellent physical condition of our mules and horses after the three weeks of the kind of incessant labor. All day long and far into the night pack trains and provision wagons are being loaded, and ambulances bring back the sick and wounded. Poor Cuban women, foot sore, starved and weary, drag themselves along the muddy roads, and at times they are being loaded with food and blankets in a search for food, and our men and ambulances pick them up and succor them. At dusk the food is insufficient. Weak women and children get none, and starvation is developing rapidly.

An old woman from El Caney staggered into camp this morning. She was pale and pinched, and the ragged silk dress that had covered her body spoke of past luxury and refinement more than did her features and appearance. She did not ask for food, but for work. She said that her husband, a hospital tent half a day in return for food, and sat down to the welcome army fare with hands bleeding from the unaccustomed labor. At dusk she turned wearily back toward Caney, six miles away, the richer by one meal.

The camps have, up to this day, been pitched under the most favorable conditions, and their location has seldom been good from the point of comfort and health. Now that the name is over, our soldiers will be moved into locations where these points are considered. The country affords good sites, and when once the capitulation is properly confirmed, changes will be made. An unsettled feeling pervades the line, and men rather than the prospect of long lines, and are looking over old battlefields for mementoes of the three-day fight and ten-day's weary waiting.

A farmer's boy from Michigan will secure the horn handled pocket knife of a dead peasant from the Asturias as a souvenir to the days he fought to free Cuba and the Cuban people. He ever grew enthusiastic and generous back in Michigan, over the idea of fighting to help the struggling Cubans gain the same liberty from Spain that his forefathers won for him from England. These same ideas have been pretty thoroughly knocked out of him by actual contact with the Cubans. The Cuban does not stand high in the opinion of the United States army. Expressed in different words, the opinion prevails that we will soon be back in Cuba to thrash the Cubans.

Our men have no praise for their allies. They are ready to eat American provisions than help American soldiers, and instances of Cuban greed, inhumanity and cowardice are common talk among the army. This opinion of our men is known among the Cubans, and it will undoubtedly result in a growing antagonism that will result in their being in the future less reliable and less worthy of trust by the United States than they are today.

ACTUALLY STARVING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTIAGO, July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gen. Pareja, Military Governor at Guanajuato, says the conditions there are awful. Spanish troops are actually starving. They have had no food for eight days. The soldiers are so weak they are compelled to sit on guard duty. The United States today took formal possession of Guanajuato, 7000 troops included. Gen. Linares says less than 4000 Spanish troops were defending Santiago on the day when negotiations for peace were opened. Gen. Pando, with his 6000 troops, came too late. The following day 2000 more reinforcements arrived, so the actual defense, according to the Spanish version, involved but 4000 men.

SEVEN THOUSAND PRISONERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTIAGO, July 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The government formally took possession today of 7000 troops at Guantanamo. These included Linares's corps of Eastern Cuba. The Spanish prisoners here now number 12,000, with 2000 more at Holguin. The health of the men in the camps is improving.

CONCERNED ABOUT SICKNESS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The report of Gen. Shafter showing that there were 3700 cases of sickness in the army in Cuba has given the officials of the War Department considerable concern, but the report that the yellow fever cases were of the mild type encourages the hope that the death rate will be small. The number of fever cases reported, 234, show that not only yellow fever, but typhoid and other fevers are prevailing. Gen. Sternberg says that it is the history of the yellow fever that it spreads rapidly, and it may be impossible to start fires to cook food.

Speaking of the other fevers, he said that not only in Cuba but in the camps in the United States there had been many cases, and it was the history of all new armies that fevers, especially typhoid, became quite common. This was due to the change of the climate and mode of life of the soldiers. Even where the water was pure cases would rise, as the army became more accustomed to the new conditions. Things not furnished by the commissary, such as milk, and other things peddled about the camp. Often these things were sold at a high price. The men mentioned was the indifferent care men took of themselves when they joined the army. It was his belief that as the army became more accustomed there would be less sickness.

HAVANA IS COMFORTABLE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ST. LOUIS, July 28.—August Grupe, one of the foremost merchants of Cuba, who has lived in Havana for twenty-four years, stopped here today en route to Germany on a visit. In an interview Grupe said:

"When I left Havana two weeks ago the inhabitants were not in the slightest fear that the city would be bombarded. In fact, everything was going on the same as usual. Havana has thus far proved very effective. The farms and the city furnish all the supplies necessary. The soil is so fertile that crops can be produced in thirty days. There is no scarcity of provisions in Havana, nor has there been any perceptible advance in the price of food. There are 40,000 regular soldiers and 25,000 volunteers in the city. About three thousand men are working night and day strengthening Havana's fortifications, under the personal direction of Gen. Blanco. A few days before I quit Havana the city was in a state of panic. Havana would be well-nigh impregnable, and that talk of its fall after six months of blockade was sheer nonsense."

PEACE TERMS ACCEPTABLE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

MADRID, July 28, 2 p. m.—With the understanding that no indemnity will be demanded, and that Spanish sovereignty in the Philippine Islands will be respected, the newspapers here consider the terms of peace attributed to President McKinley acceptable. The papers, however, protest against the continuance of hostilities by the United States after Spain had sued for peace.

NOTHING FROM MILES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Up to a late hour the War Department had received no information from Gen. Miles or any part of his command in Porto Rico.

A FLOAT FOR PORTO RICO.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEWPORT NEWS, July 28.—With the exception of the Fourth Ohio Regiment, the Second Brigade of the First Army Corps in command of Brig.-Gen. Haines, sailed for Porto Rico this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Gen. Haines and his staff and the Fourth Ohio Regiment are on the auxiliary cruiser St. Paul. It is not likely that this ship will leave Old Point before daylight tomorrow, as there is yet a large quantity of supplies to be loaded. The transports that got off are the City of Washington, Massachusetts, and the auxiliary cruiser St. Louis.

THE SUFFERING TROOPS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—The number of patients at the division hospital continues to increase. Today the total ran up to 230, against 215 the day before. Twenty-two new cases were registered, of which eleven came from the Tenth regiment and seven from the Seventh California. The new cases are principally of pneumonia and measles, with occasional case of rheumatism. At the post hospital there are fifty-four patients, several of whom are suffering from typhoid fever.

The deaths at the hospital today were Alfred Bebb of Co. F, Fifty-first Iowa Infantry, from pneumonia, and William Marks of Co. G, Seventh California, from cerebro-spinal meningitis.

Capt. Cook Tells How He Discovered the Spaniards.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The Navy Department has made public the reports of Capt. Cook of the Brooklyn, Lieut. Usher, commanding the Ericsson and Capt. Colton of the Harvard, giving their stories of the destruction of Cervera's fleet. The text of Capt. Cook's report follows:

UNITED STATES FLAGSHIP BROOKLYN, Guantanamo Bay anchor, July 7, 1898.—Sir:

At 3:30 a. m. the enemy were telegraphed by the Iowa as coming out. At the same time they were discovered by the quartermaster on watch of this ship, Capt. Anderson, and reported to the officer of the crew. The executive officer, Lieutenant-Commander Mason, immediately gave the order: "Clear ship for action and general quarters." Signal was made at same time: "Enemy coming out, action."

We started with steam on three boilers at about twelve knots speed. The head of the Spanish squadron column was just outside the entrance of the harbor of Santiago, heading about southwest. We opened fire on the leading ship in five minutes from the dispatch. The port battery was first engaged as we stood with port helm to head of the leading ship, and gave them a raking fire at about 1500 yards range. The enemy turned to the westward, close into the land. We then were around to starboard, bringing the starboard battery into action. The enemy hugged the shore to the westward. The Brooklyn, leading, was followed by the Texas, Iowa, Oregon, Indiana and Gloucester. The Vixen, which had been to westward of us on the blockade, ran to the southward and eastward of us, and kept for some time off our port side, distant about 1000 yards.

At this time the firing was very fast and the whistling of the shells incessant, and our escape was so little injury was inflicted on the enemy. It was attributed to bad marksmanship on the part of the enemy. The Maria Teresa, which had dropped astern while we were firing, was seen to the westward of our fleet, ran ashore. The Vizcaya, Oquendo and Colon continued on, gaining in distance. The Brooklyn was engaged with the three leading ships of the enemy, which were forging ahead, the Texas, Iowa and Indiana keeping up a heavy fire, but steadily dropping astern. The Oregon was coming up in the most glorious and gallant style, outstripping all the others. It was an inspiring sight to see this battleship, with a large white wave before her and her smokestacks belching forth continued puffs from her forced draught. We were making fourteen knots at the time, and the Oregon came up off our starboard quarter at about 600 yards, and maintained her position, though we soon after increased our speed to fifteen knots, and just before the Colon surrendered were making nearly sixteen knots. "The Oquendo, soon after the falling out of the Teresa, dropped astern, and on fire, ran ashore. The Vizcaya and Colon continued on under fire from the Brooklyn and Oregon. The other vessels of our fleet were well astern and out of range. The Texas was evidently coming up fast. At about 10:53 a. m. the Vizcaya was seen to be on fire, and the Colon passed inside of her with increased speed, took the lead and forged ahead. The Vizcaya soon after ran on the beach, ablaze with fire. We signalled the Oregon to cease firing. The Vizcaya immediately ceased, and we both continued to chase the Colon, now about 5000 yards away. The ranges ran from 1500 to 3000 yards with the Vizcaya, as she kept in and out from the coast.

"We steered straight for a distant point near Cape Cruz, while the Colon kept close to the land. She could not have come without crossing our bows, and we would have gained on her. We were getting more steam all the time, and now had four and one-half boilers on and the remaining one and one-half nearly ready."

After running for about fifty miles west from the entrance, the Colon ran into land, beached, fired a gun to leeward and hoisted an unknown flag. The Oregon and Brooklyn had just previously begun to fire upon the Colon, and were landing shells close to her. I was sent on board by Commodore Schley to receive the surrender. The captain spoke English and received me pleasantly, though naturally much depressed. He was polite, uncomplainingly. He was polite, shook hands and said that his case was hopeless, and that he saw that we were too much for him. I was on board about fifteen minutes.

"As we came from the Colon, the flagship New York came on with the Texas, reported on board the flag-ship. Rear Admiral Sampson. The officers and crew behaved with great and exceptional coolness and bravery, so that it is difficult to discriminate between the crews of the two ships. They were very enthusiastic and cheerful words: 'Fire steady, boys, and give it to them.'"

IMMUNES EN ROUTE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—The steam steamer, having on board the immune regiment, under command of Col. Hood, sailed this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Her destination is Santiago.

CERVERA'S REPORT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Admiral Cervera forwarded to the Spanish government, through the French Ambassador, his full report of the naval engagement which resulted in the annihilation of the Spanish fleet. Through the French Ambassador, the report of Cervera's report, although addressed to the Spanish Minister of War, was submitted first to the American Navy Department, and then to the War Department. The report was taken as usual in communications passing between the prisoners of war and the enemy's government. DONS HESITATED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LONDON, July 28.—A special dispatch from Madrid says: "The government has decided not to conceal that it has waited for some days to go beyond an official explanation at Washington, because the diplomatic agents employed to make the soundings gave no definite answer. President McKinley's disposition. One represented him as eager to terminate the war on moderate conditions, the other as the most onerous conditions would be imposed, so that the Madrid government thought it useless to sue official."

When, however, it was seen that the American war preparations continued, Duke Almodovar de Rio, Minister of Foreign Affairs, was instructed to send the note.

The Cabinet met Wednesday evening to deliberate as to the best means and channel of negotiation. There is little doubt that the most onerous conditions would be imposed, so that the Madrid government thought it useless to sue official. The Cabinet met Wednesday evening to deliberate as to the best means and channel of negotiation. There is little doubt that the most onerous conditions would be imposed, so that the Madrid government thought it useless to sue official."

After today's Cabinet council, Señor Sagasta, the Premier, said he had grounds for hoping that an understanding would be reached, but that he could say nothing definite.

The Cabinet met Friday evening, when President McKinley's reply was discussed. The active field operations of the war make way in the newspapers for columns of prophecies as to just what our government's ultimatum will be. The Journal's Washington special makes the Cabinet divided, the majority favoring a brief answer to the Spanish asking what she has to propose, and also advocating permanent retention of every Spanish colonial possession over which the American flag now flies. Bliss, Alger and Wilson are put down for permanent possession of Porto Rico and the Philippines, freedom of Cuba, and a naval base in the Canaries, if Watson's fleet takes those islands. Day and Gage are for Cuban freedom, permanent retention of Porto Rico and Luzon, while for Cuban freedom, permanent retention of Porto Rico and coaling station in the Philippines are Long, Griggs and Smith.

THE TIMES says the terms as to Cuba and Porto Rico are already decided, and the Philippines question is still in doubt.

This view is shared by the Tribune's Washington adviser. "The World seems to have the entire matter settled under seven distinct headings, and it boldly announces that 'These are the terms of peace, in substance, which the President will offer Spain Saturday or Monday.'"

LANDING OF MILES.

IT COST THE SPANIARDS TWENTY-THREE LIVES.

A Captain of Cavalry Killed in the Guánica Skirmish—Dons Declare They Will Defend the Road to San Juan Inch by Inch.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. THOMAS, July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The captain of the Santo Domingo schooner Roma, from Ponce, which port she left Tuesday and arrived here today, reports that the losses sustained by the Spaniards during the fighting that took place at Guánica Monday with the men from the auxiliary gunboat Gloucester were larger than at first reported. The men from the Gloucester were the first Americans landed in Porto Rico. The first estimate of the Spanish loss placed the number at four men killed. It is now said that the killed numbered twenty-three, including a captain of cavalry. The Spaniards who were wounded were taken on a special train to Ponce. It is known that twenty-three of them are now in the hospital there.

All the Spanish forces in the neighborhood of Ponce are now being concentrated in that city to defend it against the expected attack by the forces of Miles, but the Spaniards are not sufficiently strong to hold the city against the Americans. It is reported that a strong force of Spanish artillery is preparing to dispute the American advance across the island.

Guns are being placed at a strong position among the high hills in the middle of the island and the Spaniards declare that they will defend the road inch by inch and prevent the Americans from reaching San Juan.

Therefore it is quite likely that there will be some hard fighting in the interior if Miles moves his army along the military road from Ponce to the capital. It is thought that land forces sufficiently strong to capture San Juan will be landed on the north shore of the island. This would, if deemed necessary, place the Spaniards in the interior between two fires.

Philip Hanna, American consul at San Juan until the breaking out of the war, has joined Miles. He is thoroughly familiar with Porto Rico, and will be able to give the American commander valuable information. According to Hanna, Miles's army should have no very hard task to capture San Juan.

American cruiser Columbia, which arrived at St. Thomas Tuesday afternoon, is still taking coal. This work completed, she will return to the Bay of Guánica. Monitor Terror sailed this morning. The battleship Massachusetts is expected at St. Thomas from Guánica. Dispatches from Washington are awaiting her here.

SPANISH VOLUNTEERS REVOLT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO CONTRACTORS INDIGNANT AT UNWARRANTED RUMORS.

Representative Mann of Illinois Wires to Gen. Wilson in Their Behalf That They are Anxious to Go Ahead With the Work as Soon as Possible.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Gen. Wilson, chief of engineers, has received a telegram from Representative Mann of Illinois in behalf of Heldmaier & Neu of Chicago, to whom was awarded the contract for the construction of a breakwater at San Pedro Harbor, California, expressing great indignation at the report that the firm had abandoned the contract. He says that on the contrary the firm is anxious to go ahead with the work as soon as possible.

AN EXAMINER VERSION.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—A special to the Examiner from Washington says: "A new complication has arisen in the San Pedro breakwater matter. A representative of the Terminal Railroad, who is in Washington, has received a telegram from Los Angeles stating that Heldmaier & Neu of Chicago, the lowest bidders to whom the contract was awarded, had refused to carry out the contract. The matter was laid before Gen. Wilson, chief of engineers, who said he had not been notified of the action of the Chicago firm and he could do nothing without official notice."

"The next lowest bidders are Hingston & Sylvester of Buffalo, and the amount of their bid is $1,349,385, providing San Clemente Island stone is used. If the contractors are required to furnish their own stone, this firm's bid is $1,519,074."

President Leighton Wires. San Pedro Harbor is to be built as rapidly as possible, if the bidders to whom the contract was awarded have their will about it. Vice-President T. E. Gibson of the Terminal Railroad has received the following telegram from President George P. Leighton of the railroad, who is now in Washington: "Positive and direct information received that Heldmaier & Neu will immediately accept the contract and begin the work."

[Signed.] "GEORGE P. LEIGHTON."

Night Dispatches Condensed.

A London dispatch says that the Daily Mail "understands that the British transport Jolinda, carrying grenadiers to Gibraltar, was stopped in the Bay of Biscay by an American cruiser."

The Madrid correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph says: "However unpleasant the time of peace may be, they will not provoke the slightest disturbance in Spain, where little indifference is pronounced by the physician."

The Vienna correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph says that the prospect of a war between the United States and the Philippines was brought forward long ago, and there is every prospect that the conference will be in Paris.

An Oakland dispatch says the work of vaccinating the men of the Eighth California began yesterday and will be continued every twenty minutes, to the surprise of the physician.

An Austin (Tex.) dispatch says the Populist state convention yesterday nominated the following ticket: Governor, Henry Gibbs; Lieutenant-Governor, R. W. Kirkpatrick; Attorney-General, Cyclone Davis; Comptroller, R. P. Alsbury; Treasurer, J. B. Barry; Land Commissioner, H. L. Beasley; Railroad Commissioner, Jack Carey; Judge of the Supreme Court, J. M. Leary; Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, J. D. Foster. The platform submitted by the committee on Resolutions yesterday was adopted and the convention adjourned sine die.

Day Dispatches Condensed.

A dispatch from Washington says that the demand of Italy on Colombia for the settlement of the claims has not yet been complied with, and there is still a possibility the case may assume a grave aspect.

The London Daily Mail says: "The remarkable speech of United States Senator Davis of St. Paul, two people have buried the past. Senator Davis's speech is a final and complete answer to the speech of Mr. Chamberlain at Birmingham."

A dispatch from Colon to New York says that the United States warships are in front of Cartagena, and the Italian Admiral has ordered the fleet to bombard the city.

A Paris cablegram says that at the Cabinet Council yesterday, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, submitted to his colleagues certain questions arising out of Spain's overtures for peace. It is believed that the discussion turned mainly on the critical situation of French business in Cuba, and the Council of State will issue a decree opening the Cuban market to the assistance of French subjects in Cuba.

The Madrid correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph says: "The peace overtures have produced, says that there is little probability of a peace settlement, and that the United States is allowed to retain the Philippines and is not compelled to pay indemnity. The attitude of the people is one of indifference."

President Euston of the National Lined Oil Company, says: "There is nothing at this time in the affairs or the financial condition of the company to warrant the rumors which have been circulated that the company is going into the hands of a receiver. The company has no past due paper, and its losses on the seed market are largely exaggerated. At this date and at the present market prices, quick assets are sufficient to pay its liabilities."

St. Johns (N. F.) dispatch says: "The schooner Delight, Capt. McDonald, arrived here yesterday and reported having rescued a mass of wreckage from the lost French line MacDonal and the ship rescued several men and women, from which he removed jewelry and other property which would help in the search for the missing ship. The property was turned over to the government here."

The French embassy at Washington has submitted the papers in the case of the Department of Justice with a view to getting an opinion on the legal questions involved. The grounds of the representations by the embassy are that the Rodriguez was engaged in ordinary mercantile pursuits, and that the seizure of the official mail of the French government.

OUR GENTLEMEN JACKIES.

There is Good Stuff in the American Youth.

I had heard, says a writer in Harper's Weekly, the story of that young millionaire in the Michigan Naval Reserves, who was swabbing down the deck under the supervision of an old tar, when the latter exclaimed: "You George, there's a fine yacht! Do you know who she belongs to, young fellow?"

"Rather," drawled the millionaire, "she belongs to me."

And I had been told a good deal more besides about these young men and women, who have given up a life of ease and pleasure to go and work and live and feed like any common sailor; but somehow I did not realize the significance of it until I went aboard the Yosemite the other day and saw the young working practically. Saw, in fact, the above mentioned yachtman himself in grimy canvas clothes, coming up the gang plank with a big, heavy box on his shoulders.

The Yosemite was then lying at the Newport News ship yard wharf, with workmen swarming all over her, and her hull and her guns, reeking with fresh war paint. She is manned by 291 Michigan Naval Reserves, among whom is the nephew of the Supreme Court Justice; so the Judge, Mr. Justice, and I were on that account admitted, and received by Capt. Emery.

Mr. Justice was radiant in a new spring gown. Soon from the depths of a hatchway emerged a tall, white canvas figure, green and paint-besmeared, who ran forward and flung both grimy arms around Mrs. Justice, and gave her a good, old-fashioned hug. The dainty, pretty woman in the big sailor's uniform made a charming picture. And they were so perfectly unconscious about it.

In the midst of our talk up comes an officer with an order for our departure. The Yosemite's face instantly sobered into professional woodenness, and he touches his cap with a ready "Ay, ay, sir!"

The Judge—who comes from Detroit—was recognizing and shaking hands right and left with the jackies, whose embarrassed remonstrances that the hands were too dirty was drowned by his enthusiastic "Give it here, sir! I'm proud to shake it!"

"Isn't this Jack Anderson?" he would say, peering into a face bronzed almost beyond recognition. "To think that the last time I saw you was on your father's premises!"

"I'm glad to see you here—glad, and proud."

He beamed upon them all, got introduced to those he did not already know, and pointed out to us enthusiastically the chairman of the House Committee of the Detroit Club meaning "bright work," and Senator McMillan's nephew hauling something over the deck. Complications arose occasionally when officers were talking to us, and as Jack called a passing sailor and introduced him as "Maria-So-and-so's son, my dear." Whereupon Maria's son touched his cap to the officers and then took his cap to the officers again to see what would happen after such a breach of discipline.

At noon a bugle sounded, and these young gentlemen filed down to a dinner of pig's feet served in tin plates, with a tin cup of water alongside. These things greatly impressed us, and we inquired particularly concerning the work of the naval militia man to do, and his daily life generally. He turns out at 4:30 a.m., and has exactly twelve hours of duty. He has his hammock stowed it away, and appears on deck, where he proceeds to clean ship, rub the gun bright-work and deck bright-work, and so on. He has a cup of coffee. Later he breakfasts on oatmeal and sausage, and meanwhile, and day long, he runs his ship and does the manifold things that keep the ship going and make her tidy and trim. In every way, and without exception, he is a perfect gentleman.

We stood talking with Capt. Emery and one or three of the junior officers watching the busy scene. The deck swarmed with sailors—sailors carrying all orders and messages, and under them: sailors cleaning away the workmen's rubbish, and cleaning the guns, and machinery, and everything, and then to stern. One of the young officers said laughingly: "See that 'tough' coming toward us? That's my brother."

The sailor approached with a sign of recognition on his immovable face, and touching his cap, handed it to a careless brother, who took it with a careless "All right," and then added, quickly, "Thank you, John." This is a letter from our mother," he explained to me, as his eyes followed the departing Jackie.

There was a young fellow had charge of one of the new rapid-fire guns. They call it "Teddy's watch-charm," he loves it so.

Tenderly he lifted off its canvas jacket and explained the mechanism, which was not half so interesting as the utterance of well-bred gentlemen suddenly brought to face to face, in his grimy working clothes, with a party of ladies from his own city. It seemed to me very fine.

Meanwhile our particular sailor had retired to the privacy of his quarters, and he "clean himself," and presently reappeared in the regulation blue flannel and little pie-shaped cap with the ship's ribbon around it, and the boat-swain's mate's whistle slung around his neck; for such is his exalted rank. He apologized for not being able to put on his uniform, as he had to go to the toilet, but we wouldn't have had him otherwise for the world, and the Judge's pride in him was beautiful to see. We met several officers en route, and the boat-swain's mate touched his cap, and then took it off, and was helplessly

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

Yesterday was another such day as only stockholders in an ice company can enjoy.

The sermon delivered on July 3, in St. John's Church, by Rev. B. W. R. Taylor on "An Anglo-American Alliance," has been published in pamphlet form.

We are all patriotic nowadays, of course, but that doesn't stand in the way of our allowing the other party to be patriotic when it comes to putting on a revenue stamp.

The members of the Seventh Regiment have good reason now to hope that they will soon be on the way to Manila. The assurance given by the Secretary of War to Henry T. Gage, Esq., is apparently in unequivocal terms.

To vote is the duty of every citizen qualified to do so, but in order to do so he must be properly registered before the 15th of August. Voters whose names are now on the Great Register need not reregister unless they have moved from one precinct to another. The wise voter will see to it at once that he is not deprived of his vote because he is not properly registered.

The "Topics" man of the Tulare Register is evidently an advocate of municipal ownership of water, judging from a quotation he makes from Solomon's proverb: "Drink waters out of thine own cistern and running waters out of thine own well. Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad and rivers of waters in the streets. Let them be thine own, and not strangers with thee."

The outcome of the issue between the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and Assistant United States Attorney Finlayson indicates that the secretary allowed his dignity to be too easily offended. It appears that Mr. Finlayson was justified in his action. Perhaps the discovery of this fact at the state bar session of the association on Wednesday accounts for the sublime secrecy with which the proceedings of the meeting were guarded.

The laws of California are apparently very faulty in respect to the means provided for caring for the insane. This is made apparent by the fact, mentioned in yesterday's Times, that a husband in Pasadena has been compelled to swear out a complaint against his wife, who is in feeble health, charging her with insanity, and thus sending her to the County Hospital, to be tried afterward in a court like a criminal. A more delicate and humane way ought to be provided for such cases by the next Legislature.

NEW SCIENCE HALL.

Dr. Pierson's Contribution to Pomona College.

When President Ferguson assumed his duties at Pomona College the institution was burdened with an indebtedness of $60,000. In three months the entire outstanding debt was liquidated, the college established on an enduring basis, and an endowment of over $100,000 was finally secured. At this time Dr. Pierson of Chicago pledged himself to give $25,000 to build a science hall. This building will be erected this summer, and work is to begin in two weeks.

The building is to be a handsome structure, of light pressed brick, with three stories and attic. From its site, directly west of Holmes Hall, it will present an imposing appearance upon the campus, and will afford ample room for the scientific work of the college. The basement will contain a large recitation room for the department of mathematics, space for drawing tables and instruments connected with that department, besides an assaying room, a workshop, storeroom and a packing room.

The second floor will contain the department of biology and the museum, besides the college offices. The third floor will be devoted to the chemical and physical laboratories, a large lecture room and storerooms connected with these departments. There will be two chemical and two physical laboratories, all fitted up with the best modern appliances and ample hood conveniences, for the ready escape of gases and odors. The room will be provided with individual bowls, the desks will be marble-topped and provided with the best of equipments, and the entire building will be heated by steam from a large plant, which will furnish heat for all the college halls. The building and equipment will cost in the neighborhood of $35,000.

PERSONALS.

J. J. Fay, the president of the Citizens' Bank, has returned from a month's visit to Chicago.

D. R. Williamson, Sheriff of Gila, Ariz., who has been visiting relatives here for the past week, returned home yesterday.

T. L. Woolwine, clerk and stenographer in the United States District Attorney's office, who has been spending a month's vacation in the San Bernardino Mountains, returned to his duties yesterday.

FINLAYSON ON TOP.

SUSTAINED BY THE UNITED STATES ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

The Express Company Files a Demurrer to the Action Branded Against it by the Government at the Instance of Secretary Zeehandelaar.

As the public is generally aware by this time, the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and the Wells-Fargo officials do not play in the same back yard any more, the cause of their mutual disagreement being the innocent little 1-cent internal revenue stamps which the law says shall be affixed to each receipt given by the express company to shippers of packages. The express company refused to pay for the stamps, and the merchants have paid for them under protest.

Finally, on July 14, a complaint was filed in the United States District Court by Mr. Zeehandelaar, secretary of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, against Wells-Fargo & Co., which was intended as a test case to settle the matter. However, the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association becoming impatient at the delay incident to the final termination of such cases, tried to hasten matters by endeavoring to have a Wells-Fargo clerk arrested for refusing to issue a duly-stamped receipt for a package which was offered by Mr. Zeehandelaar for transmission.

The latter insisted on a warrant being issued by Deputy United States District Attorney Finlayson, which he refused to do on the ground that, in his opinion, Wells-Fargo's clerk had not violated the law. A war of words followed, in which both sides considered themselves aggrieved.

The association held a council of war, executed a war dance and things, and vowed to tack Finlayson's scalp in the sacred precincts of the inner temple. But Finlayson smoked his after-dinner cigar as usual, and seemed to forget that there was any such thing in the world as a Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association. Yesterday he received the following telegram from Washington:

"United States Attorney, Los Angeles: Have you commenced prosecution against express companies for violation of war revenue act. If so, report by wire facts on which position based."

"Acting Attorney-General." Mr. Finlayson immediately answered as follows:

"It is not a violation of the revenue act for a carrier to refuse to accept merchandise for shipment. The penalty accrues if goods are accepted for shipment and carrier fails to issue bill of lading or manifest. It is a criminal offense if carrier issues bill of lading or manifest without the stamp. Prosecutions should not begin unless laws of United States are violated."

"BOYD." Mr. Finlayson, of course, was pleased with the opinion of the Acting Attorney-General, as it corroborated his own views on the matter. His contention was that the express company had not violated the law, because it had not issued any unstamped receipt; each receipt issued had been properly stamped, although, of course, the shipper had been obliged to pay for the stamp. Whether Congress intended the stamp for the express company to pay for the stamp is not clear, and will have to be decided by the proper authorities. As the law reads, however, it has not been violated by the express company, avers Mr. Finlayson, and his opinion seems borne out by the Attorney-General.

In addition to the foregoing events, Wells-Fargo filed yesterday in the District Court a demurrer to the action brought in the name of the government by Mr. Zeehandelaar on July 14, to compel the express company to affix the stamp to the bill of lading. The demurrer avers that the failure of the defendant to issue the bill of lading cited in the complaint was caused solely by the act of Mr. Zeehandelaar in omitting to deliver to the defendant the stamp in question, and that the complaint is ambiguous because of this failure, and that it does not set out facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

The demurrer will be heard next Monday.

DON'T DELAY.

Apply at Once for the Internal Revenue License.

Those who require internal revenue license, under the provisions of the new law, should make application for them before close of business on Saturday, July 30, as the penalty after that date will be an addition of 50 per cent. of the regular amount. Those who took out special tax stamps under the old law are cognizant of the fact that application for such license must be made during July of each year, but all of those who come under the provisions of the new law must not be aware of such requirement.

A Military Encampment.

The Eighth Regiment, Southern California Volunteer Infantry, has been invited by the citizens of Santa Monica to encamp there for ten days, in the early part of September. Santa Monica intends to have a military encampment of much magnitude about that time of the year, and the citizens have invited many of the military organizations in Southern California to be present. It is said that more than $2500 has already been raised for the purpose.

A SECOND DISH.

Proved Too Plush for Actual Need and Showed the Value of Condensed Food.

"When the new food was first placed in my store I took a package home to try. The name, 'Grape-Nuts' had attracted my attention, and the statement that it was partly composed of grape sugar excited my interest, as we all know that grape sugar, made by certain methods of treating the cereals, is one of the most nourishing and digestible articles that can be eaten."

"I rather expected that the food, but was not expecting that the children would take so kindly to it. Each one of the little folks, however, passed up the saucer for a second supply, and so did I. "It is a delicious novelty, and very grateful to the palate. I found, about midway in my second dish, that I had sufficient for a meal, and realized for the first time that I was eating a condensed food that supplies one wants with a few spoonfuls, and does not require anything like the volume to furnish the amount of food required, as when any of the ordinary forms of cereals are served. Grape-Nuts are an elegant food, and the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., are to be congratulated upon the discovery," said M. C. Gosselin, the well-known fancy grocer of Grand Rapids.

Bartlett Springs Mineral Water.

A new carload of this famous mineral water has arrived. This water has gained considerable celebrity within a very limited time. It is a wholesome, refreshing beverage.

Many people here in Los Angeles use it continuously in their homes and it is recommended by many physicians for stomach, blood and kidney troubles. Get it at Jevne's.

I have always been strongly opposed to lending my name or influence to put before the people any medicine not in general use by the medical profession, believing that were nine-tenths of the so-called medicines now in use stricken out of existence mankind would be the gainer and the science of medicine no loser. For the past few years my wife, who is now sixty-two years of age, has suffered terribly from indigestion and could not take even a small amount of food in her stomach without causing distress, and the only relief she could get was from the use of bi-carbonate soda, which was only temporary. Last March I saw Ripans Tablets recommended so highly that I made up my mind to get some and unknown to my wife give them a thorough trial. Through a druggist I obtained a package of the Tablets and my wife commenced using them. They were of full strength and acted too freely on the bowels. I then wrote and obtained some relief she could get was from the use of bi-carbonate soda, which was only temporary. AN ACCIDENT PREVENTER.

"Lewis the Light" in Business as a Mascot.

Los Angeles is again afflicted with the prophecies of L. B. Greenedale or "Lewis the Light," he calls himself. He has been remaining in modest obscurity for some time past, but broke out again the next day after the burning of E. T. Earl's house on the Wilshire boulevard. He is not charged with burning the house, but has adopted his old tactics by sending to Mr. Earl the following letter:

"Armageddon, allegorically and literally. Earl: 'Count yourself as having been subjected to one variety, at least of L. Fire, and liable to many others through the agency of the young man in personally and practically recognizing and rendering his due to the Lord of Life. Deut. 3:15, 32-22.'"

"Lewis, the Light," Rev. 19:15.

The letter was signed with a rubber stamp, representing a horse, over which was written the words "The Light." The letter, together with several clippings from newspapers, and a characteristic circular headed "Genuine Message from Shiloh Hill," in which he calls upon all people to come to "Lewis the Light," accident preventer, No. 430 South Olive street.

Mr. Earl found on his desk when he reached the office yesterday morning. He immediately sent it to Chief of Police, Messrs. The latter sent Detective Goodman for the crank, and he was brought to the station.

The Chief gave him a "roasting," telling him that such annoyances must cease. The authorities of the asylum from which he had been paroled would be notified and his "light" would be placed on the four walls of the asylum again.

About eight or ten years ago Greenedale lived here, representing himself as a "Latter Day Messiah," picking a living off the dupes who believed in him. He was at that time arrested, and the investigation which followed resulted in his being sent to the asylum.

His two boys have secured positions as messengers, and their salaries support the family. Another outbreak will put him behind the walls of the asylum which paroled him, and this time undoubtedly for a long term.

Hysterical on the Street.

Miss Mamie Glinder, who lives at No. 787 Merchant street, gave the people around the corner of Fourth and Spring streets a terrible scare about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. While awaiting a car at the corner she was seized and fell, lying on the sidewalk as though in the greatest agony. She was carried into the drug store of Off & Vaughan.

The petrol woman was summoned and she was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where Dr. Hagan, after a thorough examination, pronounced a case of hysteria. Miss Glinder finally became rational, gave her name and address, and was taken home, and later in the evening she fully recovered.

Mooney Didn't Know the Law.

A. J. Mooney was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or serve twenty days in jail by Judge Owens yesterday, on his plea of guilty to having sold liquor to Officer Gorman last Sunday afternoon.

Mooney offered as an excuse that he purchased the liquor at the corner of Fourteenth and Alameda streets about two weeks ago and was selling under restaurant license, which he had for the selling of liquor in bottles and not by the glass. He thought it no infraction of the law to sell by the glass, and was given the fine as a gentle reminder.

NEW CHURCH NEAR WESTLAKE.

SALE OF TWO CORNER LOTS ON LOS ANGELES STREET.

Irrigation District Bonds—Riverside County Deal—Language of Mortgage—Uniform Shade Trees, Street-Railway Fares.

There has been a decidedly better feeling in the local real estate market during the past week. This may be due to the improved prospects for the construction of the deep-water harbor at San Pedro, to the fact that the end of the war is apparently in sight or to the cessation of the scare over the effects of the dry season, which have not proved to be nearly so disastrous as was expected. Then, again, it may be due to all these reasons combined. In any case, it is the general testimony of real estate agents that inquiries have been much more numerous during the past few weeks, and several good trades have been effected.

LOS ANGELES STREET SALES.

Two sales of Los Angeles street property have been made during the past week, both of them through the agency of Clark & Bryan. The first was the northeast corner of Los Angeles and Boyd streets, 50x120 feet, which was sold by F. N. Pauly to Maj. S. A. Randall for $7500. The purchaser intends to find a tenant and improve the property with a brick block.

The southeast corner of Los Angeles and Boyd was also sold by Charles Dillman, a Sacramento man, to George J. Denis. This lot is 61 feet front and the price was about $5000. Denis will also find a tenant and improve the property.

The same firm has also sold 100 feet in Alvarado street, near Ninth, to George Prince, a new-comer, who will build a residence on the lot. The price paid was $3000.

A NEW CHURCH.

The firm of W. M. Garland & Company has made a deal for the 100x155 feet at the corner of Eighth street and Burlington avenue, to the Methodist Church Association, which will erect a church on the lot. The price paid was $4500.

IRRIGATION DISTRICT BONDS.

Two decisions have been rendered by the Superior Court of San Bernardino county, which have an interest for those who have invested in irrigation bonds outside of the particular district concerned. In the first case, suit was brought by certain individual property holders, resident in the Rialto Irrigation District, to cancel $400,000 of the bonds. Among the objections raised by the defendants was one that the plaintiffs do not comply with the law, make any offer to restore the consideration that was given for the bonds, but seek to retain the fruits of the transaction, and the court decided in favor of annul and cancel the bonds, thereby ignoring the well-established doctrine that "the who seeks equity must do equity." In passing upon this point the court said:

"I cannot understand how the plaintiffs can come before a court of equity with admitted facts and pleadings, and then, after they have endeavored to annul, without an offer on their part to restore the consideration, and that they have not the power to make restoration, should have in this proceeding. If this be true, greater the reason why the plaintiffs should not listen to them until they are in a position to respond to the orders of the court in its endeavor to adjust the equities. If the plaintiffs are not parties. The objection will, therefore, be sustained."

RIVERSIDE COUNTY DEAL.

The Riverside Press states that the following Riverside county property was included in the deal made by W. W. Brotherton, who recently disposed of the new armory block at the corner of Eighth and Spring streets to the Security Loan and Trust Company:

"The Lakeview Hotel, and bathhouse, and also lots 2, 3, 6 and 7 of block 38, and lots 1 to 8 of block 43, R. L. and I. Co. lands; also the undivided quarter of section 24 and north-west quarter of section 21, township 5 south, range 5 west."

"Two $10 revenue stamps were affixed to the deeds to the Riverside county property filed yesterday."

"It is understood that the Elsinore property was included in the deal made by the R. L. and I. Co., $7500. The latter was a cash deal."

OPENING NEW HIGH STREET.

For several years past a suggestion has been made that it would be a good idea to continue New High street to a junction with First street in order to relieve the congestion at the corner of First and Spring streets. The Council recently adopted a resolution of intention to open a street in a diagonal direction, from a point on North Broadway between First and Franklin streets, to New High and Fourth streets. This plan is bitterly opposed by the property owners interested, who claim that such a street would cut up their lots and practically confiscate their property. A new plan for a direct thoroughfare between Franklin and First streets.

LANGUAGE OF MORTGAGES.

To determine the question upon what property a mortgage is a lien depends somewhat on the phrasing of the instrument. Lately, a State Supreme Court, in a case involving a mortgage of land, together with the "tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances," decided that the mortgage was a lien on the land only, and that a crop growing on the land was not included in the property thus described. In an earlier case the same court determined that a mortgage of land with the "tenements, issues and profits thereof," attaches as a lien to the crop growing on the land at time of foreclosure. In neither of these cases was any particular principle of law involved. The decision in the first case was simply that a growing crop was not included in the property described; whereas, in the second case the growing crop was included under the term "tenements, issues and profits." The intention of the parties will in all cases prevail, but the intention can only be ascertained from the language of the instrument, hence the necessity of proper and comprehensive language to express the intention.

UNIFORM SHADE TREES.

"It has been suggested that it would be a good idea to provide in the new charter for an inspector of sidewalks, one of whose duties should be to look after the planting and care of shade trees, which is now done in a 'go-as-you-please' manner. Referring to a suggestion of this kind, which was made some time ago, the Pasadena News says:

"The effect of long lines of shade trees on each side of a street and a different idea of what constitutes beauty, or rather, very few with any sense of beauty or taste. The result is a street with all sorts of trees, palms and shrubs that are indigenous to California, and many of them without the least beauty or fitness for street planting."

"Another thing which should also be controlled by taste and good sense is the matter of the naming of streets. If in all growing towns like Pasadena there could be a committee of men and women of culture and taste, who should have control of the naming of streets. Our city, as well as others, shows the misfortune of the absence of such control in the names of many of the streets."

"The sentiment which led the man or woman who laid out a tract of land to remember their old home in Maine or Iowa or elsewhere is excusable, but because a man came from 'Skowhegan,' in Maine or from Oshkosh in Wisconsin, or Mauch Chunk in Pennsylvania, is not necessarily fitting or proper. It is not necessary that a street in Southern California town Mauch Chunk street or Skowhegan avenue."

"Probably somebody who had lived in Cleveland or Chicago had a hand in naming the noble avenue which extends from California street to the mountains. 'Lake avenue' a name as unattractive and uninteresting as could possibly have been selected."

"How much more fitting and beautiful would have been Madre avenue or Mountain avenue."

"Then we have Marengo avenue; if this name suggests or commemorates anything, it is a bloody battlefield in Europe. How much more appropriate and beautiful would have been Junipero or Sierra avenue."

"It is not creditable to Southern California that nothing has been done to honor or perpetuate the name of a noble, self-sacrificing soul who wrought in privacy and suffering for humanity in its meaneast garb."

"It would be glad if Pasadena should do this and should name one of the mountain peaks which look down upon the San Gabriel Valley, one of the Lord's vineyards in which he labored, 'Mount Serra.'"

"At any rate, in the years to come let us try to possess something of that finer spirit of the old Spanish pioneers, who either gave names which had some significance or perpetuated some worthy name."

STREET-RAILWAY FARES.

The influence of suburban railroads on the building up of territory is now well recognized. The results obtained in this direction depend, however, very largely on the fares that are charged. The low fares between Los Angeles and Pasadena have undoubtedly done much to build up the territory. The Outlook recently had the following in regard to street-railway fares, basing its remarks on a Milwaukee case: "It is a great mistake to suppose that which took place in Milwaukee, Wis., just two years ago, it will be recalled that the intensity of popular sympathy with the employees of the street railway to the action of the street-railway combination in establishing uniform 5-cent fares, instead of continuing the sale of six tickets for 25 cents. It was urged that during a period of falling prices street-car fares should rather be reduced than increased, and the demand on the part of the people led the City Council to pass an ordinance requiring the street-railway companies to restore the fare to the old rate of 5 cents, and to sell twenty-five tickets for a dollar. The company resisted the ordinance in the courts, and has recently obtained a decision from the United States District Judge Seaman declaring the ordinance unconstitutional. The ground upon which Judge Seaman bases his decision is that the proposed fare would not return a fair rate of interest upon the capital invested in the roads. This investment, he estimates, to be at least $1,000,000, or about $40,000 for each mile of road. As this is almost exactly the reported cost per mile of the new street railway system in Detroit, and of the street-railway systems of Massachusetts, where stock watering is pretty well guarded against, the minimum value of the road must be accepted by fair-minded critics. His argument, however, that the proposed fares would yield only 4 1/2 per cent, on the investment, is not sound. The average fare received from each passenger, says the company's report, is 2 1/2 cents, and the operating expenses are less than 60 per cent of the receipts, or but 2 cents a passenger. The net earnings of the entire Detroit system are reported to be $72,000 a year, or three times as much as Judge Seaman's estimate of the net earnings of the Milwaukee system. Inasmuch as Detroit and Milwaukee are cities with almost precisely the same population and the fares in Detroit are lower than those proposed in Milwaukee, it is difficult to understand why the Milwaukee business would be so unprofitable."

BUILDING.

The Builder and Contractor notes the following uncontracted new work: Plans have been prepared for the Board of Supervisors of a one-story brick building, to be used as an insane ward. It will be erected on Mission road, and the probable cost will be about $2000.

Hugh Phillips is about to erect a two-story frame residence, to be built on the northeast corner of Maryland and Bonnie Brae streets.

Plans are being drawn of a two-story frame residence, with attic and basement, for Mrs. Kate P. Miller, to be erected on the north side of West Sixth street, opposite Park View.

The following permits of $2000 and over were issued by the City Superintendent of Buildings:

L. L. Bowen, two-story frame residence, west side of Lake near Eighth; $2500.

A. J. Chanton, two-story frame ten-room residence, Sherman, near Sixth; $2000.

G. W. Stinson, two-story frame residence, south side Twelfth, west of Westlake, $2700. Two-story seven-room frame residence, west side of Hope north of Washington, $2500. Two-story eight-room frame residence, west side of Westlake, between Twelfth and Pico, $2475. Two-story ten-room frame residence, east side of Westlake, between Twelfth and Pico, $2450. Two-story seven-room frame residence, east side Westlake between Twelfth and Pico, $2700.

J. H. Jones, one-story, brick store building, southeast corner of Fifth and Spring, $7000.

Mrs. Quise, Eaglehoff, two-story frame eight-room residence, Adams near Vermont, $2500.

Mrs. Christina Jenkins, two-story, seven-room, frame residence, northwest corner Seventh and Burlington, $2000.

Mrs. Clara M. Parker, two-story frame, eight-room residence, Twinter between Ninth and Seventh, $2000.

MINES AND MINING.

GOLD ARRIVALS FROM ALASKA AND KLONDIKE INCREASING.

Doings in the Rand District—Barstow Reduction Works—Arizona Mining Properties—Southern Oregon Mines—Strike in Idaho—Copper Production.

Now that all fears from Spanish cruisers have been removed, arrivals of gold from Alaska and the Klondike are on the increase. The arrivals so far this week, as reported by telegraph from Seattle, amount to about $3,000,000. If these figures and those reported last week are not exaggerated, there is every probability that the value of the gold output of the Klondike and of camps on the American side of the line in Alaska will exceed $10,000,000, which was the estimate of the Alaska Commercial Company.

Besides the gold itself brought down there is a further considerable quantity represented by drafts on banks in Seattle and San Francisco, and in meeting these will, of course, have to be sent down at some later date. Adding the amount represented by drafts to the value of the metal that has been reported during the last two weeks it would make the total amount received to date for this season from Alaska and the Klondike about $5,000,000.

IN THE RAND DISTRICT.

The Yellow Aster Mining Company of Randburg has just made a two-weeks' clean-up at the Barstow Reduction Works of $28,000. For June this company paid dividends of $10,000 to its stockholders. The amount was less than the dividends declared for the previous four months, but that was due to the fact that scarcely a ton of ore was being crushed their ore, except to a limited extent. For the present month (July) they are crushing a much larger quantity of ore, and the dividends declared will be much larger. In addition to what they are crushing at Johannesburg, they are running thirty stamps on the Randburg Reduction Works. It is stated that they have leased that number of the stamps and are operating them under their own management.

It is currently rumored that changes in the general management of the Barstow Reduction Works will soon be made. There is no fact, however, to believe that some changes have already been made, and that Albert Smith has resigned as general manager. No manager, however, has been assigned for these changes, but it seems to be pretty well known that the stockholders were not satisfied with the way in which the mine was being conducted. Last week a mortgage for $25,000 was filed in the County Recorder's office in the name of the Randburg Reduction Works, given by the Randburg Reduction Works Company to the Union Trust Company of Rochester, N. Y. The security given was the land in section 1, township 9 north, range 2 west, with all improvements thereon, and was given as security to float bonds to the amount of $25,000.

ARIZONA MINES.

The Saginaw Mining Company has secured an option on the Twin Buttes mines. Speaking of these latter the Tucson Star says: "These mines are very promising copper properties. Fine strikes of large bodies of ore are reported as being made during the past week, which it is hoped, will put the Saginaw on a solid foundation. As a basis for a mining proposition, the Saginaw Mining Company, with the Twin Buttes to sustain the company, the Saginaw is liable to pull through all right and clear. The company is interested in Arizona's mining property, as well as in the interest of those who have put their money in this class of investment."

The Yuma Sun reports that a ton of assorted ore from the Buckeye mine, Mohave county, recently sampled seventy ounces in weight. The ore, on the same account, it took thirteen days to get the ore out, and $5 to have it hauled to the sampling works, as well as the cost of the sample. The remaining sampler, the returns were not considered highly satisfactory.

It is stated that the San Carlos strip recently taken from the Indian reservation will prove a good field for mining men as soon as the strip is opened up.

Favorable reports have been received from the Copper Queen Company's camp at Nacozari. Sinking on the copper property has been done to a depth of 500 feet, and the ore was run at that depth showed a ledge 185 feet in width at the narrowest point. A tunnel 800 feet long follows the vein through the mountain to a depth of 700 feet lower. Immense reduction works are being erected by the company at a point on the river six miles from the mine. The building will be all of stone and brick.

The Rosemond Copper Company, Pinal county, has 1500 tons ore on the dumps. All the company's properties are being developed and surveys of them are now being made for the purpose of securing patents.

The Old Dominion Copper Company at Globe will start up its smelter with a new engine and blower just as soon as the railroad reaches that point.

The Arizona Silver Belt prints the following: "Murray Innes returned last Saturday from California, where he spent two months, combining business with pleasure. While in Los Angeles, he concluded the sale of four claims near Webster Gulch to an Eastern party. Mr. Innes says the Globe district is attracting much attention in mining circles, and there promises to be an active inquiry for mines, especially copper properties in this section the coming fall."

SOUTHERN OREGON MINES.

The statement of the Director of the Mint gives Jackson county a gold production for 1897 of $7,945. The Jackson Times says: "It leaves an erroneous impression of the mineral resources of the county, as the products of the Sterling, Star and other prominent mines, to say nothing of the many other producing places, are not included in this estimate. These would more than quadruple the total given by that government official."

GOLD STRIKE IN IDAHO.

A strike of considerable importance is reported lately made in the Daisy mine, in the Jerome Creek district. The Lewiston Teller says of it: "The assay shows $21 in gold. The new ledge is located 150 feet north of the old workings on this mine. The ore taken for the assay was only at the depth of twenty feet, and indications from the surface showed that with increased depth the ore was becoming more heavily mineralized. The ore is an iron concentrate, resembling closely the famous mines in the Baker City district. The ledge perfect in every particular, and is, no doubt, the main ledge of the mine. The Daisy was a good property upon the other workings alone. In the prospect, the mine will become one of the most valuable in the State. It is located advantageously, being only twenty miles from the railroad. The concentrates can be hauled for shipment at very little comparative cost. The new ledge is two feet wide."

COPPER PRODUCTION.

The following table shows the copper production of the United States for the years 1896 and 1897:

	1896.	1897.
Arizona	73,745,321	81,019,922
California	1,971,545	14,129,029
Colorado	9,529,680	9,437,660
Michigan	14,058,524	145,535,749
Montana	235,558,164	237,158,510
Utah	3,550,000	3,854,821
Eastern and Southern States	3,750,124	3,727,339
All others	2,050,000	2,018,929
Copper and sulphate	12,183,210	13,903,236

Total domestic production 479,806,183 510,190,719

Prices of copper during 1897 averaged 18 cents per pound. The price in New York being 11.25 cents in 1897, against 10.88 cents in 1896.

THE DE BEERS DIAMOND MINE.

The London board of the De Beers Consolidated Company has received word from Kimberly, Africa, that a strike of large diamonds, valued at $100,000 per annum for the six months ending June 30, has been declared. Subject to audit, the revenue for the financial year ending 30th June 1898, the diamonds on hand, is $3,651,000, and the expenditure $1,458,000, leaving a gross profit of $2,193,000, and after providing for operating and other expenses, the net profit is $1,884,000, out of which two dividends amounting to 40 per cent, have been declared. These figures are exclusive of the amount carried forward in the last balance sheet and of an increase in the stock of blue ground.

THE CALUMET AND HECLA SHAFT.

From an interview with T. W. Hoskins, of Marquette, Mich., the Denver Republican publishes some very interesting details of the famous Calumet and Hecla mine of Michigan, which now has the deepest mining shaft in the world. The shaft is now 4900 feet deep, deeper than any of the deep mines on the Comstock, Nev., and deeper than the deepest mines in Austria, which have been worked for centuries. The main shaft has six compartments, each of which is as large as an ordinary shaft, one for the ladders, and one for the hoisting ropes, and others, which are necessary for the telephone, light, power, water and compressed air. The remarkable feature of this great mine is that the course of the vein is so undeviating that the engineers can plan work ahead for thousands of feet with absolute certainty that the actual working will agree with the plan.

As a result the underground workings are laid out with mathematical accuracy. The great pumps that hoist thousands of gallons of water every hour are operated interchangeably by compressed air and electricity. There are 300 power drills constantly in operation, each of them doing the work of six men, operated by compressed air, and these are kept at work night and day. Every ton of ore hoisted is automatically registered in the office, and the condition of the entire

SANTA FE OFFICIALS.

Important Railroad Men Arrive in Los Angeles.

The Santa Fe Railroad Company is represented here at present by a battalion of high officials. Yesterday W. A. Bissell, assistant general freight and traffic manager; H. C. Bush, general agent of the Santa Fe at San Francisco, and W. R. Alberger, general agent of the Santa Fe refrigerator system, came in together on Mr. Bissell's private car from San Francisco. Next week, George T. Nicholson, passenger traffic manager of the Santa Fe, will arrive from Chicago. It is said to be a regular trip of general inspection, and to have no particular significance.

F. W. Thompson, general agent of the Rock Island, returned yesterday from Salt Lake, where he went to confer with other officials of the road as to business matters. Mr. Thompson states that his associates all declare the wheat and corn crops of the East to be the most promising ever known in the country. The Rock Island, as well as other roads, is distributing a great deal of advertising matter about the Pacific Coast at Omaha. The officials of the road who stopped at the exposition say a great many people are paying a visit to the fair; that many are making pointed inquiries about California; that Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota and all the other states along the big river are very prosperous, and that all signs point to a good business to the coast this winter.

J. H. Pearman, passenger agent of the Union Pacific, has gone to San Francisco.

The prompt use of the famous old Jesse Moore A. L. whisky, with quinine, at bedtime will almost invariably break up the severest cold.

"If you see a thing too often, you no longer see it; if you hear a thing too often, you no longer hear it." Perhaps you've seen and heard so much of "Pearline" that it makes no impression upon you. Then it's time to wake up and look about and see what Pearline is doing for other women. Pearline gives the easiest, quickest, most economical washing and cleaning.

CATAPHORESIS

That name is derived from two Greek words meaning "to cause to flow downward." As applied to dentistry, it means the direct application of the force of mild electric current. It is the only means recognized by science and established by success for filling teeth without pain. It's success depends upon the best and most expensive appliances. As usual, I have supplied the best—the first best in this city.

PASADENA.

BLAZE IN A MOUNT LOWE CANYON, ANOTHER FIRE.

Attempted Burglary on Hudson Avenue—Suggestion as to Water Development—The White Shield, New Trail Over Mount Lowe to Be Constructed.

PASADENA, July 28.—[Regular Correspondence.] There were two fires in Pasadena about 5 o'clock this afternoon. First, a fire in the hotel on the other side of the mountain. The buildings are in no danger, but the government has been notified that a fire is damaging the forestry reserve. It is supposed to have been started by hunters. At 8 o'clock to-night Alpine Tavern reported that the fire was still burning briskly, and so far as was known, there was no force out to fight it. The blaze seemed to be near to the camp, and the probability is that a crew of men will be sent up the trail from the Arroyo Seco in the morning to try to hem the fire in, should it still be burning. The least apprehension is felt about the property of the Railroad Company. About the time this smoke was observed, an alarm was given by a slight fire in the rear of Fawcett's furniture store on East Colorado street. Mr. Fawcett had ignited some waste paper in his back yard, and had stepped into the store for a minute, when a friend came running in and exclaimed, "It's getting a little hot for your horse out there!" Mr. Fawcett went out, saw flames leaping skyward, and a pile of lumber and second-hand furniture on fire. It blazed up so fiercely that a merchant across the street called out the fire department, but it had its run for nothing, as the flames had been extinguished by the bucket brigade. A young man, named Brown, was attempting to rescue a burning table from the heap.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY. A police alarm came in from No. 123 Hudson avenue at 10 o'clock this evening, and the Marshal with Officer Pinkham responded. It was found that a burglar or tramp had attempted to enter a house on the avenue, occupied by an elderly couple, and had been detected by the woman. She heard the fellow operating at the doors and windows and was almost paralyzed with fear, but found her voice after a moment and yelled so loudly that several neighbors heard her and sent for the police. The officers found the burglar on the roof, but he had made himself very scarce. Several cases of this sort have been reported in the past few days. The office of the police is now being broken into tonight. A night watchman discovered the broken window.

A WATER SUGGESTION. A suggestion is made by a gentleman who has had much experience in developing water that the city, before trying to buy plants or to float bonds for purchasing or constructing water works, should spend a little money in sinking wells and developing water. The city has had a lot of water for sprinkling and other purposes, says this gentleman. "Why should it not have a water supply of its own for municipal use, without regard to the larger question of municipal works for domestic supply? And how much stronger would be the position in the market, could the city say, 'We know we can supply ourselves with water for we have the water to show.' Its position as a buyer of water, or a seller of bonds would be fortified by its ownership of a number of good wells and the city can easily develop them."

THE WHITE SHIELD. This is the emblem adopted by the new organization of young women in this city for temperance work and physical culture. They had a large and enthusiastic meeting at the home of Mrs. Alice H. H. on Monday evening, and took in six new members this afternoon. Committees are arranging for quarters for a gymnasium and reading-room, and the ladies are being employed. The young ladies expect to become as proficient in their gymnastics as the "White Shield" members in their. The "White Shield" members have been adopted and the temporary organization made permanent.

A NEW TRAIL. One of the results of the recent visit to the United States Forest Service by Commissioner to Mr. Wilson will be the construction of a trail up over Mt. Lowe by the Pasadena and Mt. Wilson Toll Road Company. This is the most important one recently undertaken in the mountains, and will save a lot of zig-zagging in the mountain trip.

RETURNED FROM KLONDIKE. A. Oppenheimer of this city has returned from the Klondike region after a year's explorations. He has been one of the lucky ones, brought home some gold and the papers covering a fine claim, which promises to yield for some time. He will spend a few months in the States to close up some business and then return to work his claim. He says the Klondike country is all it has been painted, both as to the riches there and the difficulties in getting them. A partner owns a share of his claim and they will operate it jointly.

PASADENA BREVITIES. Anxious ones in Pasadena heard good news today from the little schooner Penelope, which is carrying the Pasadena party to the gold fields of Kotzebue, Alaska. She was sighted 300 miles southwest of St. Michaels on Friday of June by the Grace Dollar, a packet boat on which is S. H. Reynolds, a brother of C. C. Reynolds, who started earlier on the same trip. The former crew flew the signal "All well," and she has probably reached her destination there. She is expected to return to San Francisco this week or next. T. H. Goff, who desires again to adorn the Legislative halls of this State, and D. J. Brummett, candidate for the office of County Treasurer. Over 100 Ontario people will visit Rubio Canyon and Mt. Lowe Friday. The Southern Pacific tracklayers are making hard work of the new road from Ontario to Chino, and trains will be running on the new line in a few days.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY.

A DESPONDENT INDIAN PUTS A BULLET INTO HIS BRAIN.

He Made Deliberate Preparations to End His Life—Still Half-Alive. Preparing for the Red Cross Ball, Fishing Under an Awning.

SAN DIEGO, July 28.—[Regular Correspondence.] Another suicide, tired of life, lies at the County Hospital with a bullet in his brain, and with life ebbing away. This time it is an old man, sick, poor and discouraged. His name is Z. Pickett. He is an old soldier, and has had an honorable career. By trade he is a carpenter. Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock he fired three shots at or into his head, one of them going into the brain.

The old man moved recently to a little cabin near Gregory Springs. His place is within a stone's throw of where a drunken German shot his wife and then himself, some weeks ago. Pickett had been in the water for several days in order to be near the water, which he hoped would benefit him. Yesterday morning he came to town and bought a revolver, telling the storekeeper that he had arranged with his neighbors to fire the revolver in case he became sick in the night. Capt. Gregory and Capt. Lamb, staying at the apartment of Ralph Swain, visited him whenever they heard a pistol shot.

Returning home, the old man made preparations for a taking off. He wrote a letter to M. T. Gilmore, commander of the Heintzelman Post, G. A. R., of which Pickett is a member. This week by the explosion of a lamp, resulting from blowing down the chimney to extinguish the light, is now reported in a dying condition. She has suffered great agony, her body being burned until the flesh was fairly cooked. Her husband, whose hands were badly burned while endeavoring to save his wife is able to be out.

REWARD FOR INCENDIARY. The City School Trustees have offered a reward of $100 for information which will lead to the apprehension of the incendiary who fired the central building Tuesday morning. There is no reason to believe that the incendiary was a school teacher, as the building was fired, as everything points in that direction. Considering that it was the third incendiary fire in the town this year, the school trustees are very anxious to get the incendiary. A reward of $100 is offered for information which will lead to the apprehension of the incendiary. A reward of $100 is offered for information which will lead to the apprehension of the incendiary.

IGNORES THE STATE. Constable Tevel of Alamitos arrested Louis Boltz, a saloonkeeper at Anaheim Landing, yesterday on a charge of selling liquor without a license, filed by A. Whelan, a son of the late John Tevel, who was arrested on a charge of selling liquor without a license. He claims that he is not amenable to the State, being on government land. He has sold the place to a son of his, and by the end of September everything will be ready for the new steamship business. The roadbed between here and Los Angeles is being improved, and the bridges strengthened. The steamer St. Dennis arrived this morning from Ensenada. She confirms the report of the capture of the murderer of Judge Campbell. There is intense feeling over the murder, but no attempt to hasten the action of the law.

Capt. P. G. Guinan, commanding Company B, Minute Men, has received an invitation to go into camp with the Eighth Regiment at Santa Monica, from the 10th to the 15th. The company may decide to go. Edward M. Kimball, formerly of Denver, died at his home in Paradise Valley yesterday of consumption. He was 30 years of age. The Red Cross Society is arranging for a dance and entertainment at La Jolla next Wednesday evening. The schooner Rurika Durrant is loading lumber in Eureka for the Russ Lumber Company.

BAND OF OUTLAWS JAILED. SAN DIEGO, July 28.—[Associated Press Dispatch.] Word was received this morning from Ensenada that in addition to the capture on Monday of the two murderers of Judge Campbell, the Rurales, who participated in the chase, rounded up fourteen other ex-convicts and landed them in the Ensenada jail. For the past two years this band of ex-convicts, which included the murderers of Judge Campbell, have been in the mountains, and suspicion has rested on them as being implicated in two murders that happened in that vicinity about a year ago. In addition they were also suspected of cattle and horse stealing, and generally leading a lawless life. They were taken this morning to the Ensenada jail. The electric company employees have to be continually on their guard not to injure the lines. The employees are very feeble, and yet have so much spirit that they often try to get on and off the cars when in motion.

SANTA MONICA BREVITIES. Fishing has been exceedingly good for some time. Large quantities of pompanos being caught, especially at the Southern Pacific wharf. Already it is being demonstrated that the new sewer wharf adds the pleasure wharf, now being built, to the excellent points from which to fish. This will obviate the necessity of a long walk to enjoy the sport, and there promises to be lively competition between the north and south beaches for honors. A camera obscura is now being put in on the north beach. The Cecilia Junior Club of the Plaza Church, Los Angeles, had a picnic here yesterday, there being twenty-three young people in the party. Names of the Arcadia are A. G. Hubbard, Redlands; S. D. Pelton, Riverside; James C. Waters, Mrs. F. E. Waters and Mrs. C. L. Luckenbach, Los Angeles; H. C. Stewart, Coronado; C. E. Orr, Pasadena; E. D. Neff and wife, La Mirada; Anne, a co-Clarendon; John, arrival are C. W. Potter, Covina; W. H. Chamblin, Pasadena; M. B. Davis, El Paso, Tex.; H. E. Pohen, A. B. Stafford, Los Angeles; P. F. Farwell, Pasadena; George P. Dunlap, Riverside; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Green, Barstow; J. W. Smith and family of Los Angeles; and a party from the South Bay. Miss Fridman of San Bernardino is registered at the Derby Villa.

Eleven Hundred Fish Caught—Big Red Cross Ball. HOTEL DEL CORONADO, July 28.—[Regular Correspondence.] Just as the guests of the Coronado Hotel were being served at the Red Cross Ball, a large quantity of fish was caught at the pier. The varieties were as follows: Barracuda, 600; yellowfish, 350; croakers, 18; Spanish mackerel, 10; yellowtail, 10; total, 1100. On the pier there were caught croakers, pompano, perch, silver salmon, and a number of other kinds, probably a total of 1500. The hotel has a new arrangement in regard to serving fish that is highly commended. A card accompanies the breakfast bill of fare, containing the names of fish caught off the hotel, some twenty or thirty varieties. Those on hand are checked off, the giving the guest choice from the list. They are working hard, in conjunction with the Red Cross Society, to make the ball the greatest social event of the season. Great liberality has been shown by both sides of the bay in furnishing material to aid the society. The ladies of Coronado are cooking cakes galore.

CORONADO BREVITIES. Capt. M. J. Daniels of Riverside is among the newcomers to Coronado. George H. Adams of San Francisco is among the guests of Hotel del Coronado. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Rowland and Misses Nina and Nellie Rowland of Fresno have come to enjoy a few days of seaside life. L. H. Estep and wife of Pasadena are spending their vacation at the hotel. Accompanied by Mrs. A. Kameron, Miss Frances Gilbert and H. G. Mayell, all of Cleveland, O. John D. Spreckels came down from San Francisco on Tuesday and will remain until next week, when his family will return. Mrs. Spreckels and family have thoroughly enjoyed their six-week stay. An awning is being placed over the extreme end of the ocean pier, for the comfort of fishermen.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY.

HOT WEATHER MAKES THE CANDIDATES SPOUT.

Friendly Calls on Convention Delegates—Sons of Veterans Mustered into the Organization—Water Claim Filed for a New Mill.

SAN BERNARDINO, July 28.—[Regular Correspondence.] Notwithstanding the heat the candidates for county offices were much in evidence today and the would-be delegates to the Republican county convention, which will be held in Redlands next Wednesday, were given the "glad hand."

The first of the Republican caucus was held in this city yesterday. In San Bernardino precincts Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 6, Central, Mt. Vernon, American and Urbana, to select county tickets for the primaries to be held Saturday. While there are sufficient candidates to go around, a few were in need of second candidates for the nomination to several of the most important of the offices. It is safe to predict that a strong ticket will be nominated at Redlands, quickly and without hitch or controversy.

SONS OF VETERANS. A meeting of David D. Porter Camp, No. 14, Sons of Veterans, was held Wednesday evening, on which occasion the organization was mustered into the ranks of the county. The officers of the camp are: Captain, A. S. Jones; Major, Foster; Mary C. Bray, grammar and primary department. Garden Grove—W. B. Hill, Carrie E. Hill; Santa Ana—E. Mitchell, Emma King; Redlands—W. K. Kerr, Edith Haskins; El Toro—Mary Watson, Fullerton—W. R. Carpenter, S. S. Twombly; high school; A. S. Jones, Mary Foster, Mary C. Bray, grammar and primary department. Garden Grove—W. B. Jones, Mary Foster, Mary C. Bray, grammar and primary department.

WATER CLAIM. William G. Van Slyke and J. C. Littlepage have filed a claim to all the water in Little Morongo cañon, to the extent of 200 inches, for mining, milling and domestic purposes. The place of the claim is in the upper part of the cañon, C. L. Allison, Jesse Case, R. T. Taylor. Refreshments were served by the women's Relief Corps, three degrees, also presented to the camp a handsome silk flag. Two new members were initiated into the order by means of the amplified work of all three degrees. Speeches were made by J. L. Hattery, C. N. Campbell, Truman Reeves, Judge J. L. Damon and A. E. Ade.

THE SCHOONER SALVATOR ARRIVED TODAY from Port Gamble with lumber for the Santa Fe Company. Work on the wharf will begin Monday, and by the end of September everything will be ready for the new steamship business. The roadbed between here and Los Angeles is being improved, and the bridges strengthened. The steamer St. Dennis arrived this morning from Ensenada. ORANGE COUNTY.

HOUSEBREAKER BROUGHT BACK TO HIS STAMPING GROUND.

He Confesses to a Series of Burglaries—List of County Teachers. Sick Soldiers Suffer, Small Hardships—Fruit Shipments.

SANTA ANA, July 27.—[Regular Correspondence.] John Smith, the housebreaker arrested in Los Angeles Tuesday by Detective Goodman on a description from the Sheriff's office here, was brought to Santa Ana this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Ull and lodged in the County Jail. That he is the same man who has been doing so much housebreaking in Orange county during the past few months there is no longer any doubt, for among the stolen goods found in his possession were pieces of silverware, jewelry, etc., convicting him of five burglaries—that of Henry Leck at Tustin, W. H. Evans, John Harmon and Herbert Crooks at Santa Ana, Eugene Wilson, an old offender, and Thomas White were arrested yesterday while trying to dispose of a hand-some wrap which they asserted they picked up in the dirt. They will be examined on a charge of petty larceny.

W. P. Butcher, a resident of this city for over ten years, has announced himself as a Republican candidate for the office of District Attorney, subject to the approval of the next county convention of his party. The steamer Pomona arrived from the north yesterday at 4:30 o'clock with thirteen passengers and forty-nine tons of freight for this port. Police Judge S. Price is again presiding in his court, after a stay at the Hot Springs. City Assessor Burgin and family left this morning on a vacation trip over the Santa Ana.

A recent canvass of the new Cold Springs precinct near the San Marcos Pass, reveals sixty-two voters, out of which number there are forty-one Republicans. I. W. Whaley has died twenty years ago today, at the age of 84, at A. W. Clark for the sum of $955.

REDLANDS.

Statistics Concerning the Season's Orange Shipments.

REDLANDS, July 28.—[Regular Correspondence.] The Redlands Orange-growers' Association, has closed the season's shipping, and A. B. Rogers, secretary and manager of the association, has submitted its annual report. The association shipped this season 50 per cent more oranges than last year, and in spite of the lower prices, the greater quantity has more than compensated for the low prices. "The wisdom," says the report, "of the policy adopted by the association a year ago, of doing its own packing and shipping, is being demonstrated. Not only this, but by unusual care in packing and shipping, the brands stand higher than ever before in the markets, and command the highest prices. The association has been reduced to 25 cents per box in the price of material, the cost of packing and marketing the oranges of the association has been reduced to 10 cents per box, which includes brokerage, cash discounts and every item of expense connected with business."

The association has not lost a single dollar from failures or bad debts during the season. The association received 25,000 boxes of fruit, packed 36,000 boxes, and shipped 231 cases of fruit. Of the fruit received, 50,746 boxes were fancy navel, 12,607 boxes choice navel, and 12,607 boxes of thirty-five hundred boxes, were navel culls. The average net price per box received for the fancy navel was $1.08, for the choice navel $1.08. The culls sold for about 20 cents per 100 pounds. The association received 1,091,921 pounds of Mediterranean sweets, 76,412 pounds of seedlings, 118,411 pounds of seedlings, 100,320 pounds of tubs, 100,320 pounds of Malta bloods, 257,590 pounds of Valencia Lates and 143,693 pounds of Cordon Lates. Next to fancy navel, the highest net prices were turned from Camp Merritt, where his son Gus is confined in the hospital. The statement that the report which have reached here in regard to the poor treatment of patients there have been very much exaggerated, and he is well satisfied with the care his son has received.

ORANGE COUNTY BREVITIES.

Fruit shipments from the Orange depot of the Southern California Railway this week were four carloads of dried apricots, by C. S. Spencer; the Fay Fruit Company, by E. T. Parker, two carloads of oranges, and two carloads of potatoes by Herman Borchard. Guy Shoemaker of Villa Park left on the first of the week, after packing and badly fracturing his left arm at the elbow.

SANTA BARBARA COUNTY.

Roy Doan Charged With Abducting Another Man's Wife.

SANTA BARBARA, July 28.—[Regular Correspondence.] Roy A. Doan, a resident of this city for several years, and a member of Washington Fire Company, was arrested Tuesday evening, charged with abducting the wife of W. E. Tuley from his home Monday night while the husband was ill in the hospital. The wife was taken this morning to the care of her husband. Doan's sister, Mrs. Tuley is 16 years of age, and has been married but two months. She complains of receiving abusive language from her husband. Doan states that he went there in company with another man at her request, to remove her from an unhappy home, and that he has sustained an honorable friendship for both parties during the period of three years, that he has never counseled her to leave her husband, and has never visited her at her house, except in the presence of others. Doan has been permitted to go on his own recognizance to appear for trial Tuesday morning.

WAR NEWS IN DAWSON.

Eugene F. Rogers of this city returned from Dawson yesterday. He left here in February, intending to be absent a year. He was on the ill-fated ship Corona, escaped when she sank, and arrived at Dawson in April by way of the Chilcot Pass. He bought and located several claims, and worked them while the water lasted. The numerous deaths from scurvy and a slight case of the dreaded disease, frost-bitten Mr. Rogers back to the land of fruit and vegetables. He relates the first arrival of the war news through a Seattle paper, which was purchased from the owner for $5. It contained the account of the battle at Manila. The new owner, hired a hall and charged admission to enter and hear it read. The first day's receipts were $700. The hospital at Dawson is full of scurvy patients, and four persons died of it on the boat coming down. Mr. Rogers exhibits some magnificent nuggets to show the quality of his claims.

CHALLENGED TO RACE.

The recent excitement in yachting circles has resulted in a challenge from Bates Bros., owners of the Petrel, to Capt. Newman of the Olita, for a series of three races, to be sailed in the channel for a purse of $50. The races are to be a week apart, and the rival yachts are to be refitted with new sails for this special contest. There has been so much contention over the respective merits of the Petrel and Olita that the result of the races is eagerly anticipated, and there is heavy backing on both sides. Will Bates and H. S. Short have completed the hull of another yacht, which is thirty-three feet in length, with a nine-foot beam. She is expected to be a formidable rival for favor and sailing qualities among the fast growing fleet of the Santa Barbara Channel, and will cost over $500.

SANTA BARBARA BREVITIES.

The monthly meeting of the Natural History Society will be held Saturday afternoon at the society's rooms in the High School building. A paper on "How to Use Our Eyes," or "What Can Be Seen by the Way," will be read by D. Gregerson. The temporary chapel of All Saints' Episcopal mission in El Monteito has been completed. Rev. Melville M. Moore is in charge of St. Andrew's at Carpinteria, will hold the first service at All Saints' next Sunday morning. John R. Rice, who was badly injured by the gas-glycerine explosion at Pismo yesterday, was a former resident of this city.

Stanley Hollister telegraphed yesterday that he had on a short furlough, and was going to New York for a visit, and that he was rapidly improving from the effect of his wounds. Eugene Wilson, an old offender, and Thomas White were arrested yesterday while trying to dispose of a hand-some wrap which they asserted they picked up in the dirt. They will be examined on a charge of petty larceny. W. P. A BOX OF MONKEYS.

Young People to Aid the Red Cross League.

"A Box of Monkeys" will be presented in St. Paul's Church, tonight, for the benefit of the Red Cross League, by a number of boys and girls. The cast will be as follows: Mrs. Ordega Jones, Miss Harriet Severance; Miss Sierra Bengaline, Miss Alice Gwynne; Lady Guinevere Llandpoire, Miss Alice Gray; Ed Ralston, Arlie Elder; Chauncey Ogden, Ralph Paddock.

There arrived at Red Cross headquarters yesterday a lot of Red Cross nurses' badges. They are of white satin ribbon, five inches long and about one and a half inches wide. On the top is the symbol of the society—a red cross—and underneath the words "Nurses' Class, 1888," printed in bright red. The second Red Cross nurses' class is now pursuing its studies, the first class having graduated about July 1.

The second class consists of twenty-five members, two of whom are men and fifteen nurses. They meet every Saturday at the County Hospital, and attend lectures every Tuesday evening at the Medical College on Buena Vista street.

Miss Ada M. Laughlin, art teacher in the Normal School, and Mrs. Clara M. Preston, Miss A. A. Schenck, art teacher, have demonstrated what intelligent women can accomplish in spare moments. After the fourteen Normal School boys departed, the Seventh Regiment for San Francisco, they set about procuring funds for the benefit of the lady, and the result of their efforts has proven a very satisfactory and gratifying to the patriotic ladies. They developed kodak pictures of the boys, and took pictures of scholars, Normal School groups, etc., from which they have realized over $60, all being done after hours, at odd moments. About $55 of the amount went to the Normal School boys in the Seventh, and the balance of about $10 was to be sent to Wesley Hall, the Normal boy who was wounded so seriously at Santiago.

Yesterday Mrs. W. H. Perry sent in thirteen domino bandages and Miss May Owens five.

New members registered yesterday were: Misses A. A. Schenck, Kate Wallcut, Alice W. B. Weyse, Augusta C. C. App, Ada M. Laughlin, Alice Wolfkill, Ruth R. Wolfkill, Grace G. Wolfkill, Isabella G. Wolfkill, Innocent Wolfkill, E. Stanihaus Wolfkill; Messrs. D. J. Vieira, H. H. Metcalf.

ORANGES WANTED.

Handsome Donation from F. H. Rindge—The Irrigation Congress.

The Chamber of Commerce has received, through the State Board of Trade, a communication from the Red Cross at San Francisco, asking for donations of oranges for the volunteers in that city who are sick, and also for those soon to start for Manila. If the orange-growers of Southern California who desire to donate oranges for this cause will correspond with Frank Wiggins, secretary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, proper arrangements will be made for shipping the fruit to the gallant boys who are devoting themselves to the service of their country.

Yesterday the Chamber of Commerce received a telegram from Frederick H. Rindge at Marlborough, Mass., asking if the Chamber would accept the celebrated painting of Mount Lowe, by Symmons, if he would have it forwarded here. The offer was accepted with thanks, and when the painting arrives it will be hung in the gallery. It is a handsome painting, 10x12 feet, and will be a valuable and greatly appreciated addition. Mr. Rindge is one of Boston's millionaire manufacturers, who, with his family, spends the greatest part of his time at his beautiful California home, several miles north of Santa Monica on the coast.

The Chamber has been asked to send a delegate to the Irrigation Congress, which is to be held at Cheyenne, Wyo., on September 1, 2 and 3. The matter will be taken up by the Board of Directors at its next meeting, when a delegate will be appointed.

The Chamber yesterday sent to the State Board of Trade at San Francisco four cases of oranges, to be added to the Los Angeles County exhibit at the State Board of Trade rooms in that city.

A Narrow Escape.

Yesterday car No. 145 of the Los Angeles Railway was going down Broadway from First street, when, a short distance from Second, a bicyclist attempted to turn quickly across the track in front of the approaching car. His wheel slipped and the man was thrown to the ground in front of the car, which was going too fast to stop. The fender caught the man, dragging and rolling him for a distance of ten or fifteen feet before the car stopped. Bystanders rushed to his aid, assisting him to his feet. With a shrug and laugh he mounted his wheel, riding away before the spectators recovered their breath.

Wanted in Fresno. A. T. Rayner, a middle-aged man, was arrested on Fifth street last night on a warrant issued in Fresno by Constable Crutcher, charging the prisoner with grand larceny. The chief of detectives says the warrant was handed to him to have served by a man from Fresno, who claimed he was delegated by the Constable there to perform the mission. The detectives claim not to know the details of the case.

POLITICS.

The Executive Committee of the Republican County Central Committee met again yesterday afternoon and perfected arrangements for the primaries at which delegates to the State Convention are to be elected. The plan adopted is that considered by the committee on the previous day, and outlined yesterday in The Times. A meeting of the County Central Committee will be held next Monday at 10 a. m., when the report of the Executive Committee will be presented. It will undoubtedly be approved as it was finally adopted without opposition in the Executive Committee.

Under the plan proposed, each Assembly district will be subdivided into groups of precincts, and to each group will be allotted its proportionate number of the entire number of delegates to be chosen from the district. The County Central Committee will request the Republicans of each group of precincts to meet in caucus on August 9, at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of nominating the delegates allotted to the group. The combined nominations of all these caucuses will make the regular ticket for the Assembly district. The primaries will be held on August 13, and will be open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m.

This plan has grown in favor as it has been discussed. It is regarded as affording the truest expression of the will of the party that can be obtained. Every precinct and every Republican voter will have a voice in the selection of the delegates to the State convention. Those men will be chosen in each locality who represent the views of the majority of the Republicans of that locality.

The Republicans of the Seventh Ward met last evening at No. 610 East Fifth street to effect an organization. George "Watermelon" Knox is one of several aspirants for the presidency of the club, but his ambition is hardly likely to be gratified. Knox was one of the Silver Republicans who abandoned the party in the last campaign, and went over to the enemy. Apparently he has seen the error of his ways, and is now desirous of coming back into the fold. In one respect at least he is evincing more common sense than he showed in the last campaign for he is now an enthusiastic supporter of Henry T. Gage. "Watermelon" will doubtless be received again into the Republican party if he desires to come, but until there is some evidence of the permanency of his conversion, it is hardly presumptuous for him to expect either honors or rewards from the party.

Frank Mattison of Santa Cruz, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for the State Board of Equalization for this district, is in the city. The district embraces twenty-three counties. Mattison is already assured of strong support in the northern part of the district and he is now making a vigorous canvass of the southern counties. His only rival for the nomination is George Arnold, whose unsavory record as a member of the Board of Equalization should be sufficient to insure his defeat.

The enthusiasm aroused throughout Southern California by Henry T. Gage's candidacy for the gubernatorial nomination is fast assuming the proportions of a landslide. The rapid growth of the sentiment in his favor is silencing all opposition. Assurances of support come from all parts of the State. The alleged opposition of the press of Southern California is no longer heard of. The revelation of Gage's popularity there has been afforded during the past ten days has astonished even his most sanguine friends.
